

NEW SEASON COLLECTIONS

The catwalk comes home

Taking a cue from fashion, meet the interiors trends for 2016

Illustrated sleeve pen, £10, Mirum Beau at
The Conran Shop

Century Hotel mini sculpture, £80, Chisel & Mouse at Design Museum Shop

Zag Zig Liquorice K5142/01
cotton, £55 per m, Jon Burgerman x Kirkby Design

Kodari rug,
£809, Kelaty

HOOP-LA
.....

Famous for its bentwood furniture, Thonet has added a modern edge
with the Cirque stool's loops echoing its name.

Tokolo tote, £495, Bao Bao Issey Miyake at matchesfashion.com

Charcoal matt
emulsion, £35.50
for 2.5l, Fired Earth

Hermès spring/summer
2016

Black LINES

Cirque stool, approx £495, Martino Gamper for Wiener GTV Design

Leaf seat, £349, Design by Nico at Clippings.com

Might this just be the best way to work monochrome? From squiggly doodles to graphic straights, black lines have made their mark on white. Livingetc spotted them at Hermès and Miu Miu. With simplistic, Japanese connotations, it's a back-to-basics trend that's oh-so liveable with.

Miu Miu spring/summer
2016

Intersect Paperless invitation, approx £20
for ten, Patternity
at Paperless Post

B Straight throw, £138.80, Uppercase at Clippings.com

Apparel
screen, £746, Vera & Kyte for Opinion Ciatti at Made in Design

Fernanda
vase, £35,
Habitat

SCREEN TIME
.....

Vera & Kyte's Apparel
screen for Opinion Ciatti
works as a coat hanger, room divider and mirror. Looks swish too.

Frame sideboard, £418, By Lassen at Twentytwentyone

Banjooli settee, £792, Sebastian Herkner for Moroso

Wire candleholders, £22.50 for three,
Nordic House